

IFT 212 – Computer Architecture

Course Code: IFT 212

Lecturer: Dr. Wills

Description: Explores the structure, function, and design of computer systems including processor organization, memory hierarchy, input/output systems, instruction sets, pipelining, and performance evaluation. Students will gain understanding of how hardware and software interact.